

UNIT 7

SHOPPING AND FASHION

1 BEFORE YOU WATCH

a What is a flea market?

A place where people buy and sell ...

- 1 old things
- 2 only new things
- 3 both old and new things

b  Work in pairs. Ask and answer the questions.

- 1 Do you like buying old things or new things?
- 2 Where do you buy them?
a markets b shops c malls d online

c Look at pictures 1–5. Match the pictures with the words in the box.

kebabs spices scarves fleas Russian dolls

1 _____

2 _____

3 _____

4 _____

5 _____

2 WHILE YOU WATCH

a  Watch the video about flea markets. What is a good title for the video?

- 1 Flea Markets Old and New
- 2 Interesting Things to Buy at a Flea Market
- 3 Flea Markets around the World

UNIT 7

SHOPPING AND FASHION

- b Watch again. What things can you buy at the different flea markets? Match the pictures with the words in the box. Some words are not used.

clothes gold computers paintings fur hats hamburgers chairs lanterns tables kebabs watches

1 Les Puces, Paris, France

2 Ecants, Barcelona, Spain

3 Izmailovsky, Moscow, Russia

4 Grand Bazaar, Istanbul, Turkey

- c Watch again. Are the sentences true (T) or false (F)?

- The Paris flea market started about 200 years ago.
- The English phrase flea market comes from a French word.
- Today, the Ecants market in Barcelona is in a new building.
- People can buy gold at the Izmailovsky market in Russia.
- Many tourists visit the Grand Bazaar in Turkey.

T / F
T / F
T / F
T / F
T / F

3 AFTER YOU WATCH

- a Describe a market you know in your country or another country. Complete the chart with the words in the box and your own ideas.

old new big small indoors outdoors food clothes fun interesting

Age
Size
Place
Things you can buy
I like it because it's ...

- b Tell your partner about your market. Are your markets the same or different?