

A BLOG ABOUT YOUR TYPICAL DAY

- 1 What time do you get up on school days and at the weekend?
- 2 Read Carlo's blog about his typical day. What things are the same as your day? What things are different?

This is my typical day!

In the morning, I get up at 6.30 am and I have a shower. Then I get dressed and have breakfast. I have fruit and cereal. I ride my bike to school or I catch the bus. I arrive at school at about 7.45 am, and lessons start at 8 o'clock. My favourite lessons are history and PE. I don't like maths! I have lunch at 12.00. School finishes at 3.30 in the afternoon, and I go home. In the evening, I do my homework and I play computer games. I don't watch TV. I go to bed at 9.30 pm.

- 3 Look at the Key language box about your typical day. Find words in Carlo's blog to complete it.

KEY LANGUAGE FOR A BLOG

Present simple verbs

I get up, I ride my bike, I¹ _____ breakfast.

Time expressions

In the morning / afternoon /² _____

Telling the time

at 6.30 am, at 7.45 am, at 8³ _____, at 9.30 pm

Exclamation marks to say something important:

I don't like maths!

- 4 It is important to use the correct verb when you talk about activities. Choose the correct verbs in the sentences.
- 1 I have / get PE in the afternoon.
 - 2 I have / play the piano every day.
 - 3 I do / have my homework in the evening.
 - 4 I do / go to school at 7.30 am.
 - 5 I play / get football in the park.
 - 6 I do / have dinner at 8 pm.
 - 7 I play / go swimming after school.
 - 8 I get / have home from school at 5.30 pm.
- 5 Get ready to write a blog about a typical day. Make notes.

[illegible]

- 6 Write your blog. Use time expressions and add an exclamation mark to say something important. Use your ideas in Exercise 5.

[illegible]