Nona's Pasta $

If you're really hungry, go to Nona's Pasta! The plates are very big. Just look at the spaghetti and meatballs! Everything on the menu is big, cheap, and delicious. You can choose your own pasta and sauce combination to make your own meal. Everything comes with a salad and bread. The chef always makes sure you're happy with the food. If you aren't, she brings you another plate. Service is fast and easy. Nona's Pasta is a great place to go for a hungry family.

Catch of the Day Café $$$$

If you like fish, you can't miss Catch of the Day Café. All the fish and other seafood is fresh from a nearby beach. Everything is excellent. There are 10 to 15 different plates on the menu every day, depending on what the chef has. Even the veggies in the salads are fresh from farms near the city. Catch of the Day Café is expensive, but it's the best restaurant in town for a special meal.

Sally's Soups $$$

If you love soup and just soup, this is the place for you! There are spicy soups and sweet soups. There are potato soups and tomato soups. There are a lot of possible ingredients to choose from. Everything is delicious. My wife and I usually order the black-and-white bean soup with black beans, white beans, and onions. It is excellent and not too spicy. We always leave happy when we eat there!
