A New App for Household Chores

Eva Smith

Who has time for household chores? On weekdays, you get up early, exercise, and go to work or school. When you come home, who wants to do chores? I know I don't!

ChoreTime is a new app for your phone. You choose your chores in the app: clean the house, make dinner, do the laundry, wash the dishes, go shopping, or take out the garbage. You choose how often you do it: every day, once a week, or twice a week. You tell the app when you sleep and when you go to school or work. After that, the app finds the best times to do your chores.

I work evenings Monday to Friday. The app tells me to clean the house Monday morning and do the laundry Tuesday morning. Then in the afternoon, it tells me I have free time to visit friends or go to the movies! I love the app. I get my chores done and I have more time to enjoy my day!
