Interview with Emil Andersen

Last weekend our journalist met Olympic skier Emil Andersen to ask him about his life and work.

Experience

I'm from Tromsø in the north of Norway, but I'm living in Alberta, Canada at the moment because it's where some of the greatest skiing teachers are. My wife and three children are still at home, but I'm going to go back to Norway in two months. I learned to ski when I was four years old and that's normal for Norwegian children because it always snows a lot in winter. I was lucky because a famous skier knew my father and together they helped me to get better and better until I could ski at the highest level. Because I travel a lot, I've learned a lot of languages – English, German and French. I think French is the easiest.

Lifestyle and tastes

I work hard. I get up at 5 a.m., go to the gym for two hours, then go out in the snow for 5 or 6 hours every day. I eat healthily and I haven't eaten meat for many years. At home in Norway, I have dinner with my family in the evening. I often cook the meal because I find it helps me to relax. Sometimes we go out to the theatre, but most evenings I prefer to relax at home and listen to classical music or watch a film on TV. I also play the piano – my wife says quite badly – and I enjoy taking photos. There are some of my photos in one of the art galleries in Tromsø.

Places

I have fallen in love with Canada. The Nordic Centre where I train is in Canmore, Alberta and the mountains here are fantastic. I'm going to come back next year. Another favourite place is Geneva in Switzerland. Of course, I've been there to ski, but I've also visited in summer when it is very sunny and warm. It's an interesting city, but it isn't cheap so you can't go out every night. There's a lot to see and last year I had a nice surprise when I found a beautiful park. I feel very comfortable in Geneva.

Example: Emil Andersen has two children.

A True ☐ B False ☒ C Doesn't say ☐

1 Emil's family live in Tromsø.
