Vocabulary and Speaking

Likes and dislikes

- 1 Work in pairs. Match these phrases to groups 1–3. Then check in

VOCABULARY 1.2 p127.

- 1 saying you love or like something
- 2 saying something is OK
- 3 saying you don't like something

I (really) love ... 1 I (really) hate ... 3
I don't like ... at all. I can't stand ...
I'm (really/very/quite) interested in ...
I think ... is/are all right.
... (really) get(s) on my nerves.
I can't bear ... I (really) enjoy ...
I don't mind ... I'm not (very) keen on ...
I'm (really/very/quite) keen on ...
... (really) drive(s) me crazy.
I think ... is/are great/brilliant/wonderful.
I think ... is/are awful/terrible/dreadful.

- 2 a Decide how you feel about these things. Choose a different phrase from 1 for each thing.

- watching sport on TV
- buying new shoes
- waiting in queues
- getting up early
- cooking
- doing the washing-up
- going to weddings
- tidying up the house or flat

- b Work in groups. Compare ideas. Explain why you feel like this.

Reading

- 3 Read the comments on the internet forum. Then fill in gaps 1–4 with the things in photos A–D. Do the people love or hate these things?

flying

Things we LOVE 😊 and HATE 😡

1 _____ really drives me crazy. You have to listen to this terrible music while you're waiting, and then a woman's voice says, "you're 93rd in the queue". Sometimes you can wait for over an hour and no one answers – and you can't put the phone down because you don't want to lose your place. Then when you finally speak to someone they hardly ever solve your problem, so you have to start again anyway.

MICHAEL

I think 2 _____ are brilliant, but I know a lot of people can't stand them. I've got two sisters and neither of them can watch one for more than 5 minutes. I've seen loads of different shows over the years. The ones with celebrities are the best because you can see that none of them are any different to us – they're all just normal people really. But I wouldn't like to be on one myself because I know all my friends would laugh at me!

CORINNE

I really hate 3 _____. The trains are always really crowded and they're often late or get cancelled for no reason. Yesterday I waited nearly half an hour for a train, and then I didn't get a seat so I had to stand all the way home. I don't think that's right, not when we pay so much for our tickets. And I can't bear listening to other people's phone conversations on the train. How can people talk about hospital visits or relationship problems in public? I don't think I could do that, I'd be too embarrassed.

MARCELA

I really love 4 _____, but my wife doesn't like it at all. I can't understand why – it's much safer than driving and there are no traffic jams. She hasn't flown for years, but as far as I'm concerned, there's no better way to travel. I love just sitting back and watching the clouds go by or chatting to the person next to me. And if I'm not feeling very sociable I can always watch a film, which I never have time to do at home.

HASSAN

phoning call centres

commuting

reality TV programmes

4 a Read the comments on the internet forum again. Are these sentences true (T) or false (F)?

- 1 Michael doesn't mind talking to call centres. F
- 2 He thinks call centres usually solve your problems.

- 4 Corinne doesn't like programmes with celebrities.
- 5 Marcela had a difficult journey home yesterday.
- 6 She enjoys listening to other people's phone conversations.

- d My first visit to a Laughter Club

Laughter is the best medicine

Dr Madan Kataria

- 1 Do you want to live a happier, less stressful life? Try laughing for no reason at all. That's how thousands of people start their day at Laughter Yoga Clubs around the world – and many doctors now think that having a good laugh might be one of the best ways to stay healthy.
- 2 The first Laughter Yoga Club was started in Mumbai, India, in 1995 by Dr Madan Kataria. "Young children laugh about 300 times a day. Adults laugh between 7 and 15 times a day," says Dr Kataria. "Everyone's naturally good at laughing – it's the universal language. We want people to feel happy with their lives." There are now more than 6,000 Laughter Clubs in over 65 countries worldwide and there's even a World Laughter Day on the first Sunday in May every year.
- 3 Many doctors are also interested in the positive effects of laughter on our health. According to a five-year study at the UCLA School of Medicine in California, laughter reduces stress in the body, strengthens your immune system and is very good for the heart. Laughter Yoga is now used in many hospitals for the treatment of serious illnesses and it is also practised in schools, companies, old people's homes and prisons.
- 4 So, what actually is Laughter Yoga? I went along to my nearest Laughter Club in south London to find out. I was quite nervous about it, to be honest – I wasn't keen on the idea of laughing with a group of strangers, and I was worried about looking stupid. First, our laughter teacher told us to clap our hands and say, "ho ho ho, ha ha ha," while looking at each other. The teacher explained that our bodies can't tell the difference between fake laughter and real laughter, so they still produce the same healthy chemicals.
- 5 Amazingly, it works. After ten minutes everybody in the room was laughing for real – and some people just couldn't stop! We spent an hour doing different types of laughter exercises and at the end of the class I was surprised by how calm and relaxed I felt. So if you're upset about something at work or just fed up with your daily routine, then just start laughing – you might be very pleased with the results. As Dr Kataria says, "When you laugh, you change, and when you change, the whole world changes around you."

5 a Read the article again. Find the answers to these questions.

- 1 Where and when did Laughter Yoga Clubs begin?
- 2 How often do young children and adults laugh?
- 3 What happens in May every year?
- 4 How does laughter improve your health?
