

New York's Central Park

Central Park is one of the most amazing sights in the world – an enormous swimming pool of green surrounded by skyscrapers! CENTRAL PARK is America's oldest and biggest city park, and the most popular. It appears in more than 350 movies! It's busiest on Sundays, with nearly ¼ million visitors, so try and find a quieter time to visit. Here's a guide to some of the best things to see.

Bow Bridge is one of the (1) (beautiful) old iron bridges in the world. Perhaps you recognize it – it's the (2) (popular) movie location in the park.

The Carousel is the (3) (large) in North America. With its 58 brightly-coloured horses, it's obviously a favourite with children.

Wollman Ice Rink The (4) (wonderful) thing you can do on a winter's evening is go ice-skating here. You can skate to the music under the skyscrapers and stars!

Cleopatra's Needle is definitely the (5) (old) thing in the park – it's from Egypt and is 3½ thousand years old!

Belvedere Castle is the (6) (high) point in the park, so you can get the (7) (good) views from here.

Strawberry Fields is a garden named after one of the (8) (famous) Beatles' songs. John Lennon lived and died in New York. The Imagine mosaic here is in memory of him.
