

An email – linking words

Date: October 28 20:07:36 + (0100 (BST))

From: Amber Davis <amber231@donmail.com>

To: Grace Turner <gracetn@fsnet.co.uk>

Subject: RE: Do you remember me?!

Hi Grace!

How wonderful to hear from you! How did you find my email address? Of course I remember you, (1) [redacted] I realize it's nearly seven years now since you were my neighbour. Time flies! You told me quite a lot about you and your family, (2) [redacted] I'd like to know more. And you asked how I am these days, (3) [redacted] here's my news.

First things first, Alan and I are now divorced! I know you never liked him much, (4) [redacted] you're probably not too surprised. (5) [redacted], I still see a lot of him of course (6) [redacted] the twins go and stay with him every week. They're nine now! They're lovely girls, (7) [redacted] Jessica is a bit of a handful sometimes! And we don't live in Birmingham any more – we moved (8) [redacted] I didn't want them to grow up in the city. We live in a village called Clent. It's lovely, and (9) [redacted] it's only ten miles south of Birmingham, it's in the middle of some wonderful countryside. I'm really enjoying village life. We have a huge garden, (10) [redacted] I'm growing my own vegetables now. I'm thinking of getting some chickens, (11) [redacted] I'm not sure that the neighbours will be happy about that!

Come and see us some time! I'm afraid I can't invite you to stay (12) [redacted] the house is small, and we don't have a spare room. (13) [redacted], there's a lovely pub in the village with rooms, so you could stay there.

Let's keep in touch. I can't wait to hear more of your news, (14) [redacted] please write soon.

Love,
Amber x

D000941