

Unit 9

Grammar & Vocabulary

Name: _____

A Choose words and complete the sentences.

- 1

connect concur

 When you agree with someone, you _____.
When you join two objects together, you _____ them.
- 2

gesture
beckon

 When you point toward a particular place, you _____.
When you motion to someone to step forward, you _____.
- 3

disapproval
distress

 When you sprain your ankle, you are in _____.
When you don't like something a friend did, you show your _____.

B Read the clues. Write the words.

- 1 This word has eight letters. You do this to judge how big an object might be.

- 2 This word describes something that is very important to you. It ends in -able.

- 3 This word ends in -nt. It is how you feel when you are very sure of yourself.

- 4 This word ends in -ly. It describes something done by a lot of people.

- 5 This word rhymes with track. It means you don't have something.

C Complete the sentences. Then match.

- 1 The librarian will _____ the large and small books in different piles.
- 2 My great grandfather is an _____. I know very little about.

D Circle the nondefining relative clause in each sentence.

- 1 The snow, which will not stop falling, makes it very hard to drive.
- 2 My sister, who had the flu for a week, felt very weak.
- 3 My best friend, who was elected class president, is very pleased.
- 4 The artist, whose paintings are invaluable, will visit our museum.
- 5 The front door lock, which we replaced yesterday, no longer works.

E Complete the sentences.

whose class schedules had been changed which I dropped on the floor that I applied to whose wings are beautiful who does not like noise which is excellent exercise

- 1 Our neighbor, _____, asked us to turn down our music.
- 2 The students, _____, talked to the principal.
- 3 The cell phone, _____, no longer works.
- 4 I enjoy jogging, _____, every morning.
- 5 Monarch butterflies, _____, travel long distances every year.

F Combine the sentences. Use a nondefining relative clause with who, whose, or which.

- 1 Let's invite my aunt to give a lecture to our biology class. She is a doctor.

- 2 Our class will visit the Civil War museum. It is open today.

- 3 Little brown bats help our environment. Their diet consists of insects.

- 4 My friend is very modest about her fame. Her novels are world famous.

- 5 The singer is performing tonight at the concert. He is really talented.
