Lynne Robertson

OXFORD

One day, four friends went on a picnic in the woods.

"Is everything ready for the picnic?" asked Dan.

"I think so," said Stacy.

"How many sandwiches are there?" asked Dan.

"There are four sandwiches," said Toby.

"There are four bags of chips and four cans of soda," said Stacy.

"And we have a lot of carrots and nuts," said Kim.

"Good," said Dan. "We have a lot of food. Let's go!"

They walked into the woods.
 There were a few birds in the trees.
 "Look at the birds!" said Stacy.
 "They're so pretty," said Kim.
 "Are we there yet? I'm hungry," said Toby.
 "Not yet," said Dan.
 "Which way do we go now?" asked Kim.
 "I think we go around the pond," said Dan.

They walked around the pond.

"There are a lot of flowers," said Dan.

"Look!" said Kim. "There's a squirrel."

"He's cute," said Stacy.

"Are we there yet? This picnic basket is heavy," said Toby.

"Which way do we go?" asked Kim.

"Up that hill," said Dan.
