

This worksheet is based on the whole of the IELTS Speaking test.

■ Task One: You are the examiner!

1. You now have the chance to be an IELTS 'examiner'. Read through what the 'examiner' needs to say in each part of the test below. Your teacher will tell you what you need to do.

PART 1 (4–5 minutes)

Let's talk about what you do. Do you work or are you a student?

If the candidate works:

- What kind of work do you do?
- Why did you choose this kind of work?
- Do you prefer working in a team or working alone? [Why/Why not?]

If the candidate studies:

- What subject do you study?
- Why did you choose this subject?
- Do you prefer studying in a group or studying alone? [Why/Why not?]

Now let's talk about sports.

- What is your favourite sport? [Why?]
- How often do you play sports yourself? [Why/Why not?]
- Do you prefer watching sports live or on TV? [Why/Why not?]
- If you had the chance to meet a famous sports person, who would you choose? [Why/Why not?]

PART 2 (3–4 minutes)

Examiner: Now, I'm going to give you a topic and I'd like you to talk about it for one to two minutes. Before you talk, you'll have one minute to think about what you're going to say. You can make some notes if you wish. Do you understand?

Here's some paper and a pencil for making notes (hand over blank paper and a pencil) and here's your topic (hand over topic).

I'd like you to describe something that you would like to do in the future if you had the chance.

(At the end of 1 minute's preparation:)

All right? Can you start speaking now, please?

(At the end of the 2 minutes, ask the following rounding-off question:)

Do you like making plans for the future?

Thank you.

PART 3 (4–5 minutes)

Examiner: We've been talking about something that you would like to do in the future if you had the chance, and I'd like to discuss with you one or two more general questions related to this. Let's consider first of all ...

(Select one or two of the following sets of questions to develop a discussion:)

- Making plans for the future
  - What kinds of thing do people make plans for in their daily life?
  - Can you think of any reasons why some individuals are better than others at planning?
  - Do you think that important events are always more successful if they have been carefully planned?
- Predicting the future
  - What kinds of thing might people predict about the future?
  - What kinds of situation do businesses need to predict?
  - Do you think there might be any problems in predicting future events?

Examiner: Thank you very much. That is the end of the Speaking test.

2. As you are listening to the 'candidate', make notes in the box below and give feedback at the end of the test.
