

This worksheet is based on Part 4 of the PET Speaking test.

■ Task One: Useful phrases

In the Part 4 discussion you need to ask each other questions, agree and disagree and keep the conversation going. Here are some useful phrases. Decide which category they should go in and write them in the table. Discuss your answers with a partner.

I'm not sure about that ... What do you like to ...? Oh, so do I. How will you ...? Yes, I like ... too. What about ...? Oh, yes ... That's really interesting.	I like ... too, but I also ... I don't agree with you, I think ... Another thing I like is ... I like ..., do you? Me too. I agree with you Why do you like ...? Oh, do you? I prefer ...

■ Task Two: Making conversation

Watch Silvia and Hyun Hee doing Part 4 of the test and answer the following questions.

1. Does one of them talk more than the other? Who talks more?

2. Who asks the most questions?

3. What does the examiner do about halfway through Part 4? Why?

■ Task Three: Keeping the conversation going

DVD

Now watch the DVD again and think about what Hyun Hee says. What questions does Hyun Hee ask Silvia? Write three of her questions in the spaces below.

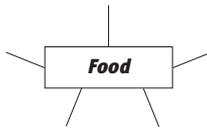

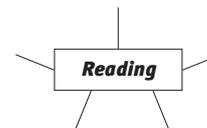

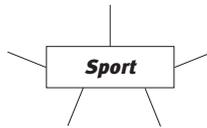

Hyun Hee's questions:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

How else does she show interest in what Silvia is saying?

■ Task Four: Topics

The Part 4 topic that Silvia and Hyun Hee discuss is about learning. The examiner may ask you about other topics like the ones below. In pairs, think of at least three things to say about each of these topics and make notes.

■ Task Five: Talking about a topic

Now work in groups of three. Choose three of the topics below and take it in turns to have a Part 4 discussion. Two of you should talk about the topic. The other person should listen carefully and time the pair who are speaking – they should talk for three minutes. Make notes while they are speaking and then tell them what you think about their discussion.

Topics
What you like to do in your free time and who you like to spend your free time with
A sport you enjoy and why you like it so much
What kind of things you read and where you like to read
Food you like and where you like to eat
Holidays you've been on and what you like to do on holiday
What you do at the weekend and who you spend the weekend with

Remember:

- Look at each other
- Ask each other questions
- Show interest in what your partner is saying
- Don't talk too much – give your partner a chance to speak
- Give examples and reasons for what you say
- Try to talk for three minutes.
