

Supplementary Pronunciation Lessons

For the Teacher

These Supplementary Pronunciation Lessons provide opportunities to learn and practice additional key English pronunciation features including rhythm, stress, intonation, and linking sounds. Each corresponds to a Student's Book activity.

The following are the target pronunciation topics and suggested points in the Top Notch 1 Student's Book units when these supplementary activities should be done:

UNIT 1 Rhythm and intonation

- Before Rhythm and intonation practice on page 4

UNIT 2 Rhythm and intonation

- Before Rhythm and intonation practice on page 18

UNIT 3 Linking sounds

- After Pronunciation, Exercise B, on page 33

UNIT 4 Pronunciation of /t/ and /d/

- Before Rhythm and intonation practice on page 41

UNIT 5 Stress and intonation in compound nouns

- After Vocabulary, Exercise A, on page 54

UNIT 6 Pronunciation of third-person singular -s

- After Pronunciation, Exercise B, on page 68

UNIT 7 Pronunciation of the simple past tense ending: regular verbs

- After Pronunciation on page 79

UNIT 8 Pronunciation of object pronouns

- After Grammar practice, Exercise B, on page 89

UNIT 9 Pronunciation of unstressed words

- After Listening Comprehension, Exercise B, on page 103

UNIT 10 Intonation for clarification and confirmation

- After Pronunciation, Exercise A, on page 115

Students can do the exercises either individually or in pairs.