

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

Extra Grammar Exercises*(Unit 6, page 66)*LESSON 2 Perfect modals*1 Complete the perfect modals in the statements.

1. You must have tried (try) peanut butter when you were in the U.S. Everyone eats it there.
2. They might _____ (go) to the play last night. It was playing near their apartment.
3. Jean and Ralph shouldn't _____ (buy) the SUV. It uses too much gas.
4. Who could _____ (be) at the meeting? Let's find out and call them to hear what happened.
5. We should _____ (tell) Raquel about the weather report before she left.
6. They couldn't _____ (see) the movie. It didn't open until today.
7. I must _____ (break) the coffeemaker. It doesn't work any more.
8. Molly would _____ (like) the concert. It's too bad she didn't go.

2 Complete each statement with the correct modal.

1. You ____ loved my grandmother. She was so nice!
a. should have      b. would have      c. could have
2. Ellen ____ studied English because she speaks very well.
a. should have      b. may not have      c. must have
3. I ____ taken the train instead of this slow bus!
a. could have      b. couldn't have      c. must have
4. They were nearby when the big accident happened. They ____ seen it.
a. could not have      b. shouldn't have      c. might have
5. I'm sorry I didn't break up with my boyfriend sooner. I ____ been happier.
a. would have      b. must have      c. couldn't have
6. They went to class this morning. They ____ known that it was canceled.
a. might have      b. must not have      c. should not have
7. She definitely wanted to be a physicist, or she ____ studied physics at the university.
a. must have      b. would have      c. wouldn't have